VENUES - VOTING – PROXIES

---

1-1-1. Designation:

- A. The Republican Party organization in Lincoln County, New Mexico, shall be known as the "Republican Party of Lincoln County" and henceforth may be referred to in these Lincoln County Supplemental Rules as the RPLC.

1-1-2. Amendments

- A. These County Supplementary Rules (CSR's) may be amended by a two thirds ( $\frac{2}{3}$ ) vote of the CCC members present in person or by proxy at any CCC meeting when listed as an agenda item and included with the "Official Call."
- B. When amendments are voted on and approved by the CCC membership these CSRs shall become effective when delivery to the following entities by certified return receipt requested mail has been corroborated:
  - 1. New Mexico Secretary of State,
  - 2. Lincoln County Clerk, and
  - 3. The Republican Party of New Mexico.
- C. CEC members should confirm these updated Supplementary Rules do not conflict with the State USR's and do not abridge the lawful political rights of any person per NM State §1-7-2.

1-1-3. Organizational Governance:

- A. Adopt USR's: The most recent active version of the Uniform State Rules (USR) of the Republican Party of New Mexico (RPNM) that is on file with the NM Secretary of State.
- B. Administrative Basis: The administration of the RPLC shall be precinct-based.
- C. Delegation of Authority: When the County Central Committee (CCC) is not in session, the authority under which it operates is delegated to the County Executive Committee (CEC)
  - 1. Exception: The confirmation elements listed in these Supplemental Rules shall remain the responsibility of the CCC.
- D. Participation: All individuals that participate in ANY OF THE AFFAIRS of the RPLC must be active and in compliance with all the points in this sub-statute which constitutes a member "in good standing."
  - 1. A properly registered Lincoln County voter whose registered political party affiliation has continuously been "Republican" for the past three hundred sixty-five (365) days prior to the date of the meeting, convention call or event.

REPUBLICAN PARTY OF LINCOLN COUNTY
SUPPLEMENTAL RULES

2. Remain current with their RPLC dues as established by the CCC.
  3. Should any individual change their registered political party designation to other than Republican, or should their residence cease to be in the county of Lincoln, then any office or position they hold shall immediately be adjudicated vacant and a successor shall be selected in the manner prescribed in these supplementary rules.
- E. Membership Lists: The RPLC secretary shall distribute all membership lists including all contact and related information to the members of said committees.
1. With approval of the CEC, the Membership List may be released by the Secretary to Republican candidates, Republican campaigns and other Republican Party affiliates.
  2. When the membership of any list is updated, the new list shall be provided to the membership within seven (7) days.
- F. Elected Positions: All individuals vying for an elected leadership position of the RPLC shall begin by submitting the following.
1. Initially complete a self-nomination form and submit it to the RPLC secretary no later than 4:30 PM five (5) days prior to the date and time of the intended election as specified in the "Official Call."
    - a. Nominations will not be recognized from the floor.
  2. Exception to No Floor Nominations: In the case of a failure by the self-nominating process to obtain the allocated number of open elected positions, nominations shall be accepted from the floor only for those offices or positions without self-nominees.
- 1-1-4. Parliamentary Procedure: All affairs of the RPLC shall use the "Rule of the Gavel," as the Parliamentary Procedure giving the event Chair the authority to act and control the flow of the agenda as presented.
- 1-1-5. Teleconferencing and videoconferencing Venues are permissible when hosting events.
- A. When using electronic venues, the software must be capable of verifying who is on the call and the total number of attendees before votes can be taken.
  - B. A hybrid venue containing both in-person and electronic means may be used when determined by the CEC.
    1. Proxies from members using the electronic portion of a hybrid venue are not allowed.
- 1-1-6. Voting Provision:
- A. Votes on actions before the RPLC shall be by secret ballot (Paper Only). The election shall be decided when all certified voting members in attendance including approved proxies (when proxies are accepted) have submitted their ballot within the time allocated.

REPUBLICAN PARTY OF LINCOLN COUNTY
SUPPLEMENTAL RULES

1. Exception: When only one person is to be voted on, a verbal vote by acclamation may be allowed unless there is an objection by one or more members. (Reference Special Rules)
  2. The margin used to win an election (majority, plurality, etc.) shall be defined in the Special Rules for each election and announced to the attendees prior to any vote taken.
- B. A voting member total shall be announced by the “Vote Tabulation Committee” prior to any votes taken.
- C. Paper ballots will be used and kept as historical record by RPLC Secretary for a period of time equal to the elected position or office terms.
1. Paper ballots with more names selected than permitted will void the ballot for that office or position.

1-1-7. Proxies ~~ Acceptance - Non-Acceptance - Limit

- A. Acceptance: Proxies are accepted at all CCC meetings when the following criteria have been met:
1. Any properly elected CCC member may appoint any Republican voter whose registered political party affiliation has continuously been "Republican" for the past three hundred sixty-five (365) days as his or her proxy to act and vote in his or her stead at a specific CCC meeting.
  2. Each proxy certificate must be in writing with:
    - a. The name of the proxy holder.
    - b. The name of the specific meeting at which it will be voted and exercised.
    - c. The signature and date of the CCC member.
  3. Each proxy certificate must be submitted to, and certified by the secretary upon entrance to the event before said proxy may be exercised.
- B. Non Acceptance: Proxies are not allowed or recognized at the following:
1. Any precinct caucus or county convention.
  2. By members using teleconference or videoconferencing services to attend the meeting, convention or event.
  3. At any standing or select committee meetings or functions.
- C. Limit: No individual shall be permitted to carry and exercise more than two (2) proxies at any meeting where proxies are officially recognized.
